

Inspiring Leaders in STEM

If you're developing leaders and teams in the STEM, Biotech or Pharma sectors, Clearworks Coaching is especially for you.

We're on a mission to help exceptional scientists & technical experts become more fulfilled, confident senior leaders. Healthy, happy high performing leaders will inspire the best innovation and progress in the STEM, biotech and pharma sectors.

Clearworks plays a part in making that happen through our six core Leadership Solutions.

Introducing the six Clearworks Leadership Solutions:

Individual leadership

Lab to leadership™

High performing teams

Leader as coach

Female leaders

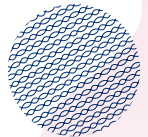

Inclusive leadership

The transition from smart technical expert or scientist into inspirational, charismatic leader is no mean feat. The team at Clearworks comprises specialist executive coach facilitators with the experience and credibility to work with the smartest leaders across your organisation to help them make that move:

From technical to inspirational

From research to commercial

From uncomfortable to healthy, happy, high performing leadership
